Color Corps

Commander Sir Knight Nick Volk reports that there were two events in the area supported by the local assemblies. The first was the presentation of Colors at the St. Jude Fun Run held August 14. Standing guard were John McGinness, Nick Volk, Jay Fields and Jim Nieman. The second was the Honor Flight return at the Eastern Iowa Airport for the WWII veterans on Sept. 14. Attending were Jim Nieman, Nick Volk, Jay Fields, Gene Tang, Kurt Kinion and Chris Zaugg.

The Assembly is still seeking members for the Color Corps. If you are interest and have regalia please contact the Commander. We are completing our calling tree/email list. As promised at the Installation, the Commander will make sure that everyone who volunteers for the Color Corps will receive an updated and individual Drill manual.

The next business meeting will be held on Tuesday, September 28th at John XXIII at 7PM.

Rosary will begin at 6:40. Agenda items shall include updates from the standing Committees; Chalice, Welfare, and Membership Committee. Faithful Navigator John McGinness has received a request that this Assembly sponsor the KofC Youth Essay program on Responsible Citizenship in Today's Society. The Assembly has also received donation requests for the Iowa State Knights of Columbus Disaster Fund. Faithful Captain Nick Volk is also looking at discussion and/or study topics of Church or Patriotic relevance as an educational program for our business meetings. A light luncheon and cards will follow the conclusion of the meeting.
